

Shape the future of digital health research

Join the new Community of Practice for health and care professionals across the South East

Curious about digital research in health? Want to connect with others who are improving care through innovation, evidence and collaboration?

CONNECT
Meet colleagues across practice, research and digital teams

LEARN
Explore examples of digitally enabled research and get help getting started

SHARE
Exchange ideas, innovation, challenges and practical solutions

COLLABORATE
Develop new opportunities, projects and partnerships

DELIVER
Create and deliver new projects, access support for new approaches

Who should join?	Why get involved?
Nurses • Midwives • Allied Health Professionals • Clinical Academics • Researchers • Educators • Digital Health Professionals	Be part of a welcoming member-led space to shape priorities, strengthen links between digital and research teams, and turn good ideas into better care, outcomes, quality and patient safety.

Launch Meeting

Tuesday 6 October 2026 | 2.00–3.00pm

Come along, bring your ideas, and help shape how this new community works.

Ready to join the community or find out more?

Sign Up Here: South East Region Multi-Professional Digital Research Community Sign Up – Fill in form

